DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's amendment filed 10/15/04 has been received and considered. Claim 2 has been canceled.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

4. Claims 1-7, 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Freitag et al. in view of Kaufmann et al.

Regarding claim 1 Freitag et al. discloses a piston cylinder unit having a heat shrunk sleeve 10 surrounding a cylinder, as clearly shown in the several embodiments. Note also element 36 which extends into the gap. Note the end wall and gap (not labeled) but as per applicant's.

Art Unit: 3683

Freitag et al. however lacks showing the sleeve 10 "enclosing" the end face (in the area of element 4) and extending into the gap.

Kaufmann et al. provides this general teaching.

One having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention would have found it obvious to have extended the sleeve 10 of Freitag et al. into the gap (not labeled but above element 4 between the rod and the tube) to further seal the rod from the environment or act as a "wiper" (as is notoriously well known in the art) for the rod to remove debris. Elements 10 and 36 could be made integral, as fairly suggested by Kaufmann et al.

Regarding claims 3-4 these requirements are met. The end ring is at 4 in Freitag et al.

Regarding claim 5 the end ring 4 has an "annular channel" through which the piston rod extends and can be said to "face" the ring shaped gap above it, as broadly claimed.

Regarding claim 6 these requirements are met.

Regarding claim 7 the element below element 4 in Freitag et al. could also be interpreted as the end ring, which also comprises an annular channel which meets or renders obvious the limitations of claim 7 in that the width of the channel is not limited.

Regarding claim 13, as broadly claimed, these requirements are met.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 8-12 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

6. Claims 14-21 are allowable over the prior art of record.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments filed 10/15/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant's arguments have been addressed in the action above.

Conclusion

8. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
